

TERMS OF USE

AI (X11) Platform

Effective Date: 6 March 2026

These Terms of Use (“Terms”) govern access to and use of the AI (X11) platform, software, tools, and related services (collectively, the “Platform”) provided by:

Wallstreetpartner INC

Registered at: 90 State Street, Suite 700 Office 40, Albany, NY 12207, United States

Email: INFO@CHATX11.COM

(hereinafter referred to as the “Company”, “we”, “us”, or “our”).

By accessing or using the Platform, you (“User”) agree to be bound by these Terms.

If you do not agree to these Terms, you must not access or use the Platform.

1. Nature of the Platform

The Platform is a software-based artificial intelligence assistant designed to support users in managing documents, analyzing information, organizing business processes, and automating administrative tasks.

The Platform may generate documents, analyze text, organize communications, and assist in business workflow management based on data provided by the User.

The Platform is a technology tool and informational assistant only.

The Platform does not provide legal services, legal advice, financial advice, tax advice, or professional advisory services of any kind.

Nothing generated by the Platform should be interpreted as advice from a lawyer, law firm, accountant, financial advisor, or other licensed professional.

The Platform does not create an attorney-client relationship between the User and the Company.

Users are solely responsible for obtaining professional advice from qualified legal, financial, or regulatory professionals when necessary.

2. Eligibility

By using the Platform, the User represents and warrants that:

- the User is at least 18 years old
- the User has legal capacity to enter into binding agreements
- the User is using the Platform in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

The Platform is intended for use by businesses, entrepreneurs, and professionals managing commercial activities.

3. Permitted Use

Users may use the Platform for lawful business and administrative purposes including:

- organizing documents
- generating draft templates
- analyzing textual information
- managing communications
- assisting with internal workflow automation
- maintaining records of business activities.

The Platform may assist in evaluating textual information and publicly available data, but the User remains solely responsible for all decisions made based on such information.

4. Prohibited Use

Users agree not to use the Platform for:

- illegal activities
- fraud, deception, or misrepresentation
- unauthorized access to systems or data
- activities that violate privacy or confidentiality laws
- generating content that violates applicable regulations
- impersonating licensed professionals.

Users must not represent the Platform as a law firm, attorney, or licensed professional advisor.

5. User Responsibility

The User is solely responsible for:

- verifying all documents generated by the Platform
- reviewing all outputs before using them in any transaction
- ensuring compliance with local laws and regulations
- consulting licensed professionals when required.

The Company does not verify the accuracy, legality, or suitability of documents or information generated by the Platform.

6. AI-Generated Content

The Platform uses artificial intelligence models to generate outputs based on patterns in data and information provided by the User.

AI-generated outputs may contain inaccuracies, omissions, or outdated information.

Users must independently review and verify any content before relying on it.

The Company makes no guarantee regarding the accuracy, completeness, or reliability of AI-generated content.

7. Data Storage and Security

The Platform may store and process user-provided information to enable the functionality of the service.

Data may be stored using encrypted cloud storage solutions and protected through modern security technologies.

The Company implements reasonable security measures but cannot guarantee absolute protection from unauthorized access, cyberattacks, or technical failures.

Users are responsible for maintaining the security of their login credentials and access devices.

8. Confidentiality

Information provided by Users may include confidential business materials.

The Platform is designed to support encrypted data storage and secure communication.

However, Users remain responsible for determining whether specific data should be uploaded or processed through the Platform.

9. Platform Availability

The Company does not guarantee uninterrupted access to the Platform.

The Platform may be modified, updated, suspended, or discontinued at any time without prior notice.

Certain features may change as the technology evolves.

10. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Company shall not be liable for:

- business losses
- financial losses
- lost profits
- legal disputes
- regulatory penalties
- incorrect decisions made by Users
- reliance on AI-generated outputs.

The Platform is provided “as is” and “as available.”

The Company makes no warranties regarding the accuracy, reliability, or suitability of the Platform.

11. Indemnification

Users agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Company and its officers, directors, employees, and affiliates from any claims, damages, liabilities, or expenses arising from:

- misuse of the Platform
- violation of these Terms
- violation of applicable laws
- reliance on AI-generated outputs.

12. Intellectual Property

All software, algorithms, designs, and systems used in the Platform are the intellectual property of the Company.

Users receive a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the Platform.

Users may not copy, reverse engineer, modify, or redistribute the Platform without written permission from the Company.

13. Termination

The Company may suspend or terminate access to the Platform at any time if:

- the User violates these Terms
- the Platform is used for unlawful purposes
- continued access creates legal or security risks.

Users may stop using the Platform at any time.

14. Changes to Terms

The Company may update these Terms from time to time.

Updated Terms will become effective upon publication on the Platform.

Continued use of the Platform constitutes acceptance of the updated Terms.

15. Governing Law

These Terms shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, United States, without regard to conflict of law principles.

Any disputes arising from these Terms shall be resolved in the courts of the State of New York.
